

【NOTICE】 Tokyo Camii re-opens its doors to you!

Dear our friends and followers,

Concerning Japan's nationwide state of emergency declaration over the growing spread of COVID-19, we have been self-restricted most of our activities. But since the declaration lifted, we have re-planned our activities and gladly announce as follows:

- We will start to provide Friday Prayer from June 5 by taking the necessary precautions.
- Guide-tours will restart on June 6, and reservation required to limit the number of participants.
- Classes and courses will be provided via Online for a while.

We will inform you of the details concerning how to participate in the Friday Prayer and Guide-tours in soon.

Working hours of Tokyo Camii are as follows:

- Prayer Hall is open until Isha prayer.
- The Halal Market is open from 10 am to 7 pm.
- The Cultural Center is open from 10 am to 6 pm.

It is our greatest pleasure to having opportunities to see you again. However, please take a precaution for your physical condition before visitation. Thank you for your cooperation in preventing infections, such as checking your body temperature, wearing a mask, etc.

Thank you always for your kind support and understanding. We are looking forward to seeing you.
